

California State Parks Accessibility Archived Document

This archived document is currently only available by request. We are working to remediate it to provide increased transparency and meet the digital needs of Californians with disabilities.

You can request this document be automatically emailed to you by clicking the “REQUEST DOCUMENT” button above or by going to <https://www.parks.ca.gov/DocumentRequest>. (Be sure to copy the URL in the address bar above when you request the document.) You should receive the document within a few minutes.

Thank you for your patience as the California Department of Parks and Recreation continues to work to ensure accessibility of our website content.